Panama City Beach, FL – Exciting News from the City of Panama City Beach

The Summer Concert Series is back! Starting from June 6 to August 15, every Thursday evening from 7 pm to 9 pm, head over to Aaron Bessant Park at 500 West Park Drive, Panama City Beach, FL, 32413 for a fantastic musical experience.

The Summer Concert Series is a free event aimed at providing families with a fun and outdoor-friendly environment to enjoy time together. Each Thursday will showcase a different live performance, accompanied by food trucks and local vendors in the park. This year's lineup includes a mix of local bands, tribute acts, solo artists, and surprise guests, offering a variety of musical genres including rock, pop, and country to cater to all music lovers.

June 6	Deltaphonic (funk/soul/hill country blues)
June 13	The Lee Boys (sacred steel)
June 20	Paul McDonald and the Mourning Doves (americana/soul/rock)
June 27	Boukou Groove (New Orleans funk/blue eyed soul)
July 11	Jeff Carter Band (swamp rock)
July 18	Nothing Short of Pure (reggae rock)
July 25	Will Thompson Band (variety)
August 1	Andrea and Mud (surf western from the south)
August 8	Ben Loftin and the Family (white sand soul)
August 15	My Fever (indy/alternative rock)

With the arrival of warmer days, Cheryl Joyner, the Director of Parks and Recreation, shares her enthusiasm, describing this community event as one of her favorites in Panama City Beach. She mentions that it's a fun and relaxing way to start the weekend with free music. This year, the event will introduce local vendors, adding a new and exciting element. Kylie Savage-Coffey, the Facility & Special Events Coordinator, is determined to engage more local vendors, with 6 food trucks already confirmed, and plans to include 5 craft & merchandise vendors for each concert date. If you wish to become a vendor, you can contact Kylie at Kylie.Coffey@pcbfl.gov or visit www.pcbfl.gov/2024SCS.

Get ready for a thrilling Thursday night summer outing! Bring along your family, friends, and even your pets to soak in the summer vibes. Don't forget to stop by the Parks & Rec tent for a chance to win a free concert giveaway and stay updated on surprises by following our Facebook page.
